School Excursion, Gulab Bagh, Udaipur

Annual Sports

Since January different classes have been going for excursion in Udaipur. At Gulab Bagh garden the kids had very good time of fun and recreation. Also the school celebrated the Farewell Programme as usual. The final years had real fun along with the teachers. They were awarded for their excellence in several academic and other areas. The annual sports is now going on in the school. We are almost reaching the final part of this academic year. The students are preparing hard for their final exams. Heart full thanks to all our friends and sponsors of I-Connect for your cooperation and partnership with us.
